

Safe Contact System

Halfar System GmbH

Purpose of the contact system

You can use the contact options below to quickly and easily report concerns about actual or suspected misconduct that can affect our company or the well-being of people. Each report is important to help us avoid any violation against our code of conduct and thereby to secure our integrity, our reputation and thus also our success.

The contact can be used for tips and reports under the Whistleblower Protection Act (HinSchG) and the Act on Corporate Due Diligence Obligations for the Prevention of Human Rights Violations in Supply Chains (LkSG). It may not be used to make false accusations, and the reporting of knowingly false information is prohibited.

All reports are strictly confidential. They can be made anonymously. However, we encourage you to state your name in the report so that any queries can be clarified quickly.
